BRADLEY JULIAN BORDEN

Well hello there, family! It's me, Bradley (affectionately known as Pooh Bear, Bradley-Wadley and Mr. Mustard Butt) and on February 4th, 2026, I entered this realm at 4:51 a.m. to my loving parents, Parres and Brittany. I heard delivery went pretty well, but mom kept saying things about heartburn and constipation when I was in her tummy. Not quite sure what any of that means, but hey, "you get what you get, and you don't throw a fit!", as I've heard my brothers and sister say.

Life was good and the living was easy - endless days of eating, sleeping, and pooping without a care. Needless to say, it was a bit of a surprise (to me) that I'd be writing this message to you all.

84 days. Can you imagine only having 84 days to accomplish a goal? Not sure of the answer to that question myself, I asked around and many agreed that it seemed to be a pretty tight timeline. But just like the saying goes, I can't throw a fit in the midst of what I've been given.

On that fateful 84th day, April 28th 2026, our Heavenly Father, Yahweh Elohim, released me from the bonds of this flesh and called me back into his loving embrace. I've heard that so often people much older than me have asked, "what is my purpose?" or "what is the purpose of this life?". For most, the answer to that question remains unresolved. This experience, albeit difficult for my loved ones, family and friends, has revealed the true answer to what was previously unknown. As lovingly stated by our Heavenly Father on April 30th 2026, "all of you - your kids, tell them, YOU need an exchange. Your teenagers, YOU need an exchange. Young adults, you better have gotten an exchange. Middle adults, YOU need an exchange. We say, age accountability, where's that at? Accountability is over with... with Yahweh." Therein lies the answer to the question and because of that, my mission has been accomplished.

BRADLEY JULIAN BORDEN

My memory will be cherished by my parents, Parres and Brittany Borden; brothers Myles and Bryce Borden; sister Melody Borden; great-grandmother Rose Adams (Grams); great-grandmother Alberta Griffin (Great Grandma Bert); great-grandmother Valarie Ann Jones (Grammie); grandparent Shabrenia Davis (Mimi); grandparents Cornelius (Pop Pop) and Sylvia Terry (Grandma); grandparents David (Pa-Paw) and Shamean Price (Nani); honorary grandparents Christopher and Donna Preston; aunts Kelly Sterling (Evan) and Jazmen Borden, great-auntie Marnechia Ferguson (Auntie Nechia); great-uncle Alonzo Perry (Christine); great-aunties Sandra Hardeman and Denise Jones; great-auntie Eva “Debbie” Miller; great-uncle William Terry (Suzanne); great-uncle Edgar Terry; great-great auntie Alma Gadson, uncle Louis Borden, great-aunt Stacy Stepney, and a host of cousins, my spiritual family and so many other loved ones.

So family, as I bid farewell to this side of the veil, stay encouraged. Lift each other up and continue to manifest those tertiary attributes even in times of sadness and sorrow. Be sure of your calling and election.

And continue to live as if you only have 84 days. Til we meet again.

Love, Bradley

Shining Bright

Shining bright
Like a star light
knowing what's right and wrong

Had a short time
It couldn't be right,
The way it happened

Like they say
the sky's the limit
And our arms are your support with your smile beaming with glare

But truth was told
Yahweh knows
And we know we will
All soon be there

XoXo- Myles, your oldest brother

Dear Bradley

I know that you passed and we are all sad but you are in the afterlife.

I hope you are having a great time and you don't have to worry about us that much.

However as a brother I'm going to be honest.

I loved your cute body and smile.

You are the cutest baby ever.

And when you passed I was crying into shambles.

You were the Cutest, Happiest, Strongest baby I ever met.

To Bradley From your Brother, Bryce Alexander Borden

I LOVE YOU BRADLEY

to my baby brother, love melody

To My Beautiful Nephew

A few days before you passed on to be with our Heavenly Father, Yahweh, I felt such a strong urge to spend more time with you. I found myself thinking through every possible way to make that happen.

I wanted you to know how deeply I loved you, a love that began even before you were born. I loved your dad, my only nephew, in that same way before he was born too. When I first held him, it was a moment I never forgot, and when I held you, all those memories came flooding back.

The thought of experiencing that love all over again through you, an extension of him, filled me with so much joy. I was ready for it in every way.

Although that time I hoped for will never come, the love I have for you will never end. It was truly a blessing to have you, even for such a short time Bradley.

The Comforter

Message from the International Dean and Vice President

“Out of all the different descriptive words that the savior could have picked to describe the spirit that he was going to put in us, he settled on the word Comforter.” And I personally and individually can appreciate the fact that that's what he called it, because if it wasn't for the Holy Spirit abiding within to comfort us in our journey through this benighted world, up against all kinds of opposition, up against so called friends, loved ones, acquaintances -- if you don't have something in you to comfort you, it's just be a miserable journey.”

Dr. Robert Harris, MD

Acknowledgements

The family of Bradley Julian Borden would like to express our heartfelt gratitude and appreciation to our International Dean and President, Dr. Keith Gilkey, and our International Superintendent, Dr. Patricia Nelson. Your words of compassion, love and encouragement during this time of bereavement have given us the strength to continue along this journey.

We would also like to sincerely thank Dr. April Cook and her team for their guidance and support as we navigated the details pertaining to the services. Additionally, Dr. Keith Dove, we also thank you for your act of kindness and generosity.

And to our spiritual family, the members of the Institute of Divine Metaphysical Research, we thank you for the overwhelming outpour of love and compassion. Your kind words, cards and messages have truly uplifted us during this time, and we appreciate all of the gestures more than words can adequately express. We love you all and appreciate all that you have done to console our hearts.

Our beautiful baby boy will truly be missed.
